Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 1.—In one of the shortest games on record Pittsburgh this afternoon again put it all over St. Louis, winning by a score of 6 to 0. The time was one hour and twenty minutes. There was never a time when St. Louis had a look in. In the first inning, however, a good start was made by the visitors when the first man up hit what looked like a home run, but through a fast fielder was held at second base. The relay of Leach and Wagner did not get the ball back to Grady, who was the victim.

Leaver was inevitable and McFarland had hard hit all the way through the game. Burke was out of the game and Arndt played third, doing some nice work. Grady, a new comer from Des Moines, reached the Pittsburgh team this afternoon and was put in right against St. Louis. He played a nice fielding game and hit the ball hard all the time, but right at the finish.

The play that broke the heart of St. Louis occurred in the fifth inning when Mike Grady came to the front, first up, and hit a liner over the head of Leach. Right to the fence went the ball with Grady in full cry.

It looked like a home run, and Grady turned first like a thunder gust setting off for second. Leach caught up with the ball right against the fence, and turning left it came like a bullet to Wagner, who got out into deep center. It was in the third inning. McFarland was out when Arndt hit safe and took third on Leaver's double of three base balls. Grady tried to get him at second, hitting him with the ball accidentally on the head.

Arndt was laid out for a minute, but came back. This seemed to make Leaver nervous, and he sent McFarland and Dunaway down on hits. Grady hit the ball, and Shannon posted a ball fearfully hard. It seemed impossible for anyone to get near it, but it was hit by Grady, who was bound with one hand and slapped Dunaway and Leach sent it to Howard, beating Shannon, completing a double play.

Four hits and a sacrifice and Dunaway's hit threw in the second scored Howard, Grady and Gibson. In the sixth three more were scored, errors Shuman and McFarland helping out. Wagner, Howard and Grady did the scoring this time. The score was 6 to 0.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 1.—The feature event of the fourth day of the Grand Circuit meet at Narragansett Park, was the $5000 match between Nathan Strauss and Western Mare. The time for the mile was 2:34 and 2/5.

The really grand race of the day and of the meeting, in fact, was the free-for-all pacing event, two in three heats, purse $1,500. Western Mare, the favorite, won the first heat, but in the second heat she was out of the race.

Another race on Wednesday's card which was decided today was the 2:30 trotting race, in which Chief Boy was the favorite at short odds over the field, but he was out of the race in the first heat.

The last race on the card was the 2:30 trot, and after The Roman had won the first heat and Jim Perry the second, the event was postponed because of darkness until tomorrow.

2:35 pace, racing three in five, purse $1,000. Included from the previous card were: The Roman, b. m. (Hawthorn), 1:58.1; Chief Boy, b. m. (Hawthorn), 1:58.1; Little Jack, b. m. (Hawthorn), 1:58.1; and The Roman, b. m. (Hawthorn), 1:58.1.

San Francisco, Sept. 1.—Down from Montana yesterday came a flood of Nelson money. Agents throughout the city, by having implicitly the detrimental reports emanating from Nelson's camp to the effect that the Dane was of color, suffering from the effects of too rapid reducing and weak and disheveled, set up all Nelson's odds.

It is estimated that the Montana crowd placed in the neighborhood of $12,000 at odds of 5 to 4 in favor of Nelson. All the time the Dane was in first-class condition, as strong as a lion, and his money was in his pocket.

The move was a smart one and served the purpose of the gamblers. Last night agents of the Montana plunkers hunted the place where wagers on the coming battle were taken, and endeavoring to get it, more money at the short price from 10 to 15, and as this did not turn the tide, they moved to 10 to 1.

As for Nelson, he looks better than ever he did in his life. He works faster and better than ever he did, and shows absolutely no effects of the strain of reducing. His low weight is not any cause for concern, and his moving over to this side of the bay and local roasts on his manager's office moved to have influence on the gambling place. Yesterday Nelson worked with Hank Landis and Holland Brown, and Nelson in good shape. He cut his time work short and put on a little weight. He tipped the scales after his work at the gymnasium, and he weighed 145 lbs. He will have no trouble doing the weight.
